

zynsky's, 10 Geary street. These institutions enjoy a high reputation, as is attested by the large number of students in attendance, both from the city and interior. The course of studies embraces bookkeeping, penmanship, mathematics, telegraphy, and others calculated to prepare the student for commercial pursuits.

In addition to the institutions enumerated above, are many private schools of excellent reputation; the most prominent of these are the University School, Urban Academy, Zeitska's Institute, Home Institute, Clarke Institute, Mefret's French and English Institute, Academy of Notre Dame, St. Rose Academy, St. Vincent School and Philippe's Academy of Languages, which is centrally located at the southwest corner of Bush and Kearny streets, and offers every facility for those desirous of studying modern languages. Professor De Filippe personally superintends the Spanish and French classes, and he has a corps of first-class assistants to teach any of the other languages that pupils may desire to learn.
