LADIES' PROTECTION AND RELIEF SOCIETY.—Established August 4, 1853. Incorporated August 9, 1855.

This society has under its supervision a Home where friendless or destitute girls under the age of fourteen and over two years, and boys under ten and over two years, may be received and provided for until permanent homes in Christian families can be secured for them.

The building of this institution is located on Franklin street, between Post and Geary, and is a fine and commodious structure. It consists of a main building and north wing, two stories high, with full basement and Mansard roof. The wing was commenced October 1, 1863, and completed April 20, 1864, and the main building was finished in the beginning of 1869. The cost of the edifice, including grading, fencing, etc., was $44,000.

Applications for admission should be made to Mrs. J. H. Flint, at the Home, between the hours of one and three o'clock P. M., on Mondays and Fridays of each week. Donations of money, etc., may be sent to Miss Lizzie Hutchinson, southwest corner of Howard and Fifteenth street. Letters and communications should be addressed to Mrs. M. S. Jackson, 1006 Pine street.

Officers.—Mrs. Nathaniel Gray, President; Mrs. George Barstow, Vice-President; Miss E. Hutchinson, Recording Secretary; Mrs. M. S. Jackson, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Jane Flint, Treasurer; Miss Mary McGladery, Matron.

LADIES' SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.—Organized March 26, 1856. This society is the offspring of the great philanthropic movement on behalf of seamen which has peculiarly distinguished the last half century. The "men of the sea," an invaluable class of all mercantile countries, are subjected, by the nature of their avocation, to hardship and deprivation, moral, social, and intellectual. To ameliorate their condition by supplying them with a home, when on shore, surrounded by remedial influences, and affording them protection from imposition, are the objects of the society.

Meetings of the Society are held the first Wednesday of each month, at the Sailor's Home, northeast corner of Harrison and Main streets.

Officers.—Mrs. H. S. Tucker, President; Mrs. R. S. Barclay, Vice-President; Mrs. O. J. McKinnon, Secretary; Miss S. M. N. Cummings, Corresponding Secretary, 1416 Sacramento street; Mrs. C. E. Cogswell, Treasurer.

LADIES' SOCIETY OF ISRAELITES (Israelitische Frauen Verein).—Established August 12, 1855, for the purpose of assisting Hebrew women under all circumstances of want. Meets Mondays and Thursdays of each week, at 414 Clay street.

Officers.—Mrs. S. Foorman, President; Mrs. Jacob Blum, Vice-President; Leo Eloesser, Secretary; Mrs. M. Heller, Treasurer.

LADIES' UNION BENEFICIAL SOCIETY (Colored).—Incorporated April 8, 1861. Number of members, twenty-five. Meets in the vestry A. M. E. Church, Powell street, second Monday evening in each month. The objects of the society are to aid its sick and bury its deceased members.

Officers.—Mrs. C. S. Davis, President; Mrs. S. Hargro, Vice-President; Mr. Barney Fletcher, Secretary; Mrs. J. Long, Treasurer; Mrs. E. Bell, Chaplain; Mrs. E. Handy, Assistant Secretary.

LADIES' UNITED HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—Established 1855. Meets Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, at two o'clock P.M., at B'nai B'rith Building, 121 Eddy street. The objects of the society are to assist the poor and needy, to attend the dying, and bury the dead females of the Jewish faith. The affairs of the society are managed by a board of officers and an advisory board of three Councilmen.

Officers.—Mrs. E. Goslinsky, President; Mrs. G. Brownstein, Treasurer; Isaiah Cohn, Secretary.

LITTLE SISTERS' INFANT SHELTER.—Incorporated March 10, 1874. This society was organized for the purpose of taking care of the young children of working women during the day, thus allowing the mother to perform a day's work. The Infant Shelter is located at 512 Minna street. The rooms are pleasant and spacious, and fitted up with all the articles necessary for a nursery.

Officers.—Mrs. J. S. Spear, President; Mrs. John G. Harding, Vice-President; Mrs. George W. Tyler, Secretary; Miss Fannie C. Sampson, Treasurer; Mrs. J. B. Stetson, Mrs. J. S. Spear, Mrs. John G. Harding, Mrs. George W. Tyler, Mrs. S. P. Hall, Miss Maggie Neeb, Mrs. J. B. Wattles, Miss Emma Margo and Mrs. George Stoneman, Trustees; Mrs. Jane Temple, Matron.
