It was organized on the seventh of January, 1854, with one hundred and five members, and has rapidly increased, until now it numbers three thousand five hundred and thirty-seven members.

Only Germans and persons speaking German are admitted to membership. The chief purpose of the association is mutual assistance in case of sickness, and when sick every member has a right to demand support and medical attendance from the society. The society has a second purpose of doing charity to Germans not members of the association, and especially to German immigrants newly arrived. For this purpose the society has expended during its existence over $300,000. The hospital of the society, located
