ORPHAN ASYLUM SOCIETY (Protestant).—Organized January 31, 1851, and incorporated February 10, 1851.

It originally occupied the building on the corner of Second and Folsom streets, owned by Gen. H. W. Halleck, whence they removed the children in March, 1854, to the present building, south side of Haight street, between Laguna and Buchanan streets. This house, built of stone and brick, expressly for the purpose, is highly creditable to the institution, as one of the noblest monuments of San Francisco benevolence. The present number of children in the asylum is two hundred and thirty.

Officers.—Mrs. William Alvord, President; Mrs. C. V. Gillespie, Vice-President; Mrs. C. O. Gerberding Second Vice-President; Mrs. Henry Haight, Treasurer; Mrs. F. MacCrellish, Secretary; John Nightingale, Physician.

ORPHAN ASYLUM (Roman Catholic).—Organized March 23, 1851.

For a number of years the asylum was maintained in the lower part of the city, until the growth of the city's business enforced a removal. In 1862 a farm of fifty-three acres, near Bay View, South San Francisco, was purchased, upon which tract of land a large and commodious wooden edifice, with all the modern conveniences, was erected in 1872. The building is beautifully located on a hill, commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country. It covers an area of two hundred and four by two hundred and eighty-two feet, including an open centre court, measuring eighty by one hundred and forty-four feet. It will accommodate about eight hundred children. The institution is under the charge of the Sisters of Charity.

PACIFIC COAST ASSOCIATION OF STATIONARY ENGINEERS.—Organized November 14, 1885. Meets at 1358 Market street, every Friday evening. Object—To aid sick and disabled members.

Officers.—Thos. McGrath, President; J. G. Wilson, Vice-President; Alexander McConnell, Recording Secretary; Owen Pegg, Financial Secretary; John Oswald, Corresponding Secretary; J. J. Wentworth, Treasurer.

PACIFIC HEBREW ORPHAN ASYLUM AND HOME SOCIETY.—Incorporated July 26, 1871. Location, east side of Devisadero street, between Hayes and Grove. Formed for the care, relief, protection, and improvement of orphan children, and for the care of aged Israelites who are without adequate means of support.

Officers.—S. W. Levy, President; Louis Sacha, Vice-President; H. L. Simon, Treasurer; Leo Eloesser, Secretary; David Michael, Collector.

PACIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC DISPENSARY ASSOCIATION.—Organized December 7, 1876. Incorporated December 23, 1876. The Dispensary is located in the Hahnemann Medical College Building, No. 115 Haight street.

The object of the Association is to provide medical and surgical aid for the deserving poor, and to visit at their homes such among them as are not able to attend the Dispensary. A physician speaking French and German, will be in daily attendance at the Dispensary. Specialties: Diseases of the eye, ear, throat and chest, and skin diseases. Dispensary open daily from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Officers.—Mrs. C. E. Gibbs, President; Miss H. R. Taylor, Treasurer; A. H. Barnes, M. D., Medical Superintendent.

PATRIOTIC ORDER SONS OF AMERICA.—This Order was first organized in Philadelphia in 1847. In 1866 the Order was reorganized and placed upon a more substantial basis, and its membership now seek to locate a camp in every town in the United States.
