

SECURITY

All payments made by subscribers will immediately be deposited with the New York Security and Trust Company, 46 Wall street, New York city, of which Charles S. Fairchild, late Secretary of the Treasury, is President. This company is one of the strongest financial institutions in the United States.

Any subscriber desiring to withdraw can do so at any time, and the money already paid in will be refunded on demand, subject to the conditions of his contract with the company. For the security of each of our subscribers a contract has been executed in writing between this Company, the Columbian Society of the United States and the New York Security and Trust Company, by the terms of which each subscriber's money will be deposited in trust to secure the good performance of our contract. Copies of this agreement will be furnished all subscribers.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

All the transportation tickets and accommodations are guaranteed by the Columbian Society of the United States and by the New York Security and Trust Company.

Excursion Trains will not be used by Our Patrons. Subscribers will make the trip on regular first-class passenger trains, by any route they may select and at any time during the Exposition to suit their convenience.

Sleeping Car Accommodations will be provided for Subscribers on payment of the additional cost.
