

COLLEGE OF NOTRE DAME

—OF—

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

A Young Ladies' Boarding and Select Day School

—COMPRISING—

COLLEGIATE AND ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENTS.

Conducted by the SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME.

Chartered 1876.

This institution, situated on Dolores, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, and nearly opposite the historic "Old Mission Church," is remarkable for the beauty and healthfulness of its location.

Besides being easy of access by the street cars the College sends out daily two commodious private coaches for the accommodation of those pupils who prefer this mode of travel as being more secure than that attainable by the public conveyances.

The playgrounds are handsomely laid out and afford ample space for healthful exercise and amusement. The dormitories, class-rooms, study hall, etc., are sunny and well ventilated. The course of instruction is similar to that pursued everywhere by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, whose natural though very successful methods of imparting an education, at the same time solid and refined, are well known both in Europe and America.
