Charles Burrell, M. D., Attending Physician and Superintendent; Marion L. Fowler, Matron.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL.—Location, eastside of Valencia, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets. This is essentially a church hospital, being maintained under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, but persons from all denominations are received. It was organized in 1871, and maintained constantly up to 1882, from which time up to April 8, 1885, it remained closed as a church hospital. Now, however, determined and vigorous efforts have been successfully made to place it on a solid footing. Present capacity, one hundred. Secretary's address, 2902 Clay street.

Officers.—Mrs. J. G. Clark, President; Mrs. B. E. Babcock, Vice-President; Mrs. James Newlands, Secretary; Mrs. George J. Bucknall, Treasurer.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL.—Conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. Located originally on Stockton street. Removed in 1860 to its present location, corner of First and Bryant streets. The institution is not confined exclusively to Roman Catholics, patients being admitted irrespective of religious sentiments. A large wing with many improvements, including an antiseptic operating room has lately been erected. Charles F. Mohun, M. D., Resident Physician; the visiting staff consists of Dr. Luke Robinson, Dr. A. Leonard, Dr. W. S. Thorn, Dr. M. J. Fottrell and Dr. G. H. Powers.
