

E. E. EYRE, President. JAS. H. GRAHAM, Vice-President and Manager. G. M. PINCKARD, Secretary.

VULCAN IRON WORKS,

135 to 145 FREMONT STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

[ESTABLISHED 1851.]

SAW MILL MACHINERY,

“Vulcan” Band Mills, Gang-Edgers, Head Blocks, etc., etc.,

MINING MACHINERY,

Stamp Batteries, Pans, Settlers, etc., Roasting Furnaces, Rock Breakers, Pulverizers and Concentrators,

REFRIGERATING AND ICE MACHINERY,

“Vulcan” Ice Machine, from 1 to 100 Tons Capacity, for Cold Storage of all kinds, Hotels, Breweries, etc.

Corliss Steam Engines, Meyer Cut-off Steam Engines, Plain Side Valve Steam Engines,

Special Machinery and Castings of all Kinds to Order. Shafting Pulleys, Hangers and Boxes, etc. Also general REPAIR WORK.

Architectural Iron Work—Columns, Pilasters, Lintels, etc.

Ship Work—Gipsies, Chocks, Hawse Pipes, etc.

Ornamental Iron Work, Stable Furniture, Fountains, Flower Vases, Garden Rollers, etc., etc.

AERIAL WIRE ROPEWAYS

For Cheap Transportation of Ore, Coal, etc.

EAGLE IRON FOUNDRY

C. A. NOLTE, Proprietor,

MANUFACTURER OF

CASTINGS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS

Fine Castings a Specialty.

ALL WORK EXECUTED PROMPTLY AND SATISFACTION GUARANTEED,

133 and 135 BEALE STREET,

SAN FRANCISCO.