

among the oldest and most prominent of the colleges of San Francisco, opening for the reception of students on October 15, 1855. It was incorporated under the law of the State April 30, 1859, and empowered to confer degrees and academical honors. The number of students usually in attendance is upwards of 400, with a staff of 122 professors and teachers. The college edifice consists of two main buildings, connected by spacious corridors. On the corner of Grove and Van Ness avenue, the first two stories are used for class and lecture-rooms, and the two upper floors as an exhibition hall. The church and college combined front two hundred and ninety feet on Hayes street, and run through to Grove street, a depth of two hundred and seventy-five feet.

TRINITY SCHOOL.—A boarding school located at 1534 Mission street, whose special scope is the preparation of young men and boys for business, university and college. It deservedly ranks with the best of our private schools and receives a generous support from the community. It is under the control and charge of the Rev. Dr. E. E. Spalding, Principal.

ANDERSON'S ACADEMY.—Located at 1248 California street, R. Sumpter Anderson Principal. Has for its objects the preparation of persons for the profession of teaching and the "teachers' examinations" in this and other counties of the State. It also prepares for the Leland Stanford Jr. and California State Universities, and has a special department for teaching military tactics.

COOPER MEDICAL COLLEGE.—Located corner of Sacramento and Webster streets. This college is the successor of the Medical College of the Pacific. Its handsome building was erected in 1882 by Prof. L. C. Lane, and named in honor of the late Prof. E. S. Cooper. An addition, equally large, was erected in 1890, also by Prof. Laue, and there is now in process of erection on the same block and by the same donor a hospital of 100 beds. Its Faculty consists of L. C. Lane, M. D., Professor of Surgery, and President; C. N. Ellinwood, M. D., Professor of Physiology; A. Barkan, M. D., Professor of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology; Joseph H. Wythe, M. D., Professor of Microscopy and Histology; Henry Gibbons, Jr., M. D., Professor of Obstetrics, etc., and Dean; Jos. O. Hirschfelder, M. D., Professor of Clinical Medicine; Clinton Cushing, M. D., Professor of Gynecology; W. D. Johnston, M. D., Professor of Chemistry and Toxicology; R. H. Plummer, M. D., Professor of Anatomy; Charles H. Steele, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics; Samuel O. L. Potter, M. D., Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine; C. N. Ellinwood, M. D., Acting Professor of Clinical Surgery; A. M. Gardner, M. D., Lecturer on Insanity and Medical Jurisprudence; Chas. E. Farnum, M. D., Adjunct to the Chair of Anatomy and Demonstrator of Anatomy; A. Abrams, M. D., Adjunct to the Chair of Clinical Medicine and Demonstrator of Pathology; C. F. Hanson, M. D., Adjunct to the Chair of Materia Medica and Therapeutics; William Fitch Cheney, M. D., adjunct to the Chair of Obstetrics; A. W. Hoisholt adjunct to the Chair of Physiology. Winter and summer courses of lectures are given yearly. The summer is the regular course. Four regular courses of lectures are required, together with dissections and attendance upon clinics. The regular course begins on the first of June; the intermediate on the first of February. For particulars inquire of Henry Gibbons, Jr., M. D., Dean. Office, 920 Polk street.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOLS.—Boys' School, in charge of the Brothers of Mary, corner of Tenth and Howard. Girls' School, in charge of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

THE SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—The San Francisco Theological Seminary is located at San Anselmo, near San Rafael. This institution was organized by the Synod of the Pacific of the Presbyterian Church, in October, 1871, but is open for students of all denominations. The qualifications for admission and the course of studies are the same as in the oldest and best theological schools in the East. It has a library of over fifteen thousand volumes. The Faculty are: Rev. Drs. Burrowes, Alexander, Minton, Mackenzie, Landon, Day, and

Chas. G. Buck, professor of elocution and music. R. J. Trumbull, secretary, 10 California street, S. F. The new buildings—Montgomery Hall, Scott Library Hall and professors' houses—are now occupied. Term opens on third Wednesday of September, and closes on last Thursday of April in each year.

CALIFORNIA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY.—The California College of Pharmacy was incorporated August 7, 1872, and affiliated with the University of California, June 18, 1873. The aim of the institution is to unite the pharmacists and druggists of the Pacific States in organized efforts to elevate the special educational standard of the business of the apothecary, by cultivating, improving and diffusing the principles and practice of legitimate pharmacy; its collateral branches of science and the arts; the best modes of rendering available medicinal agents, by giving instructions in the same and in the art of dispensing, by a series of lectures and practical demonstrations. Lectures are given for a term of six months, during each year, at College Building, No. 113 Fulton street.

THE HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW.—This institution, which is in connection with and under the auspices of the University of California, owes its formation to the munificence of Judge S. Clinton Hastings, who endowed it with a free gift of $100,000. It is now located in the building of the Society of California Pioneers, 808 Montgomery street. The number of students is 121. Martin Kellogg, President; C. F. Dio Hastings, Dean; E. J. Ryan, Registrar; Hon. R. W. McKinstry, Professor Municipal Law; Hon. Charles W. Slack, Assistant Professor Municipal Law; J. H. C. Bonte, Professor Legal Ethics; Hon. W. H. Beatty, Chief Justice, President, ex-officio, of Board of Directors; _____, Vice-President. Office of Dean, 120 Phelan Building; office of Registrar, Mills Building

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.—The Medical Department of the University of California occupies the building formerly known as the Toland Medical College, located on the east side of Stockton street, between Chestnut and Francisco. The building was donated to the University by the late Dr. H. H. Toland. This is an institution of a high character; the Faculty being composed of some of the most prominent members of the medical profession. The course of studies is the same as that pursued in the most prominent colleges of the East and Europe. An annual course of lectures is given, commencing on the first Monday of March and terminating on the 30th of November. The faculty is as follows: Martin Kellogg, A.M., President pro tem. of the Academic Senate; G. A. Shurtleff, M.D., Emeritus Professor of Mental Diseases and Medical Jurisprudence; R. Beverly Cole, A.M., M.D., M.R.C.S., Eng., Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology; W. F. McNutt, M.D., M.R.C.P., Edin., etc., Professor of Principles and Practice of Medicine; Robert A. McLean, M.D., Professor of Clinical and Operative Surgery, Dean; W. E. Taylor, M.D., Professor of Principles and Practice of Surgery; A. L. Lengfeld, M.D., Professor of Materia Medica and Medical Chemistry; Benj. E. Swan, M.D., Professor of Diseases of Children; George H. Powers, A.M., M.D., Professor of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology; Wm. Watt Kerr, A.M., M.B., C.M., Professor of Clinical Medicine; Arnold A. D'Ancona, A.B., M.D., Professor of Physiology; Douglas W. Montgomery, M.D., Professor of Pathology and Histology; Washington Dodge, M.D., Professor of Therapeutics; John M. Williamson, M.D., Professor of Anatomy; George H. F. Nuttall, M.D., Ph.D., Special Lecturer on Bacteriology; C. A. Von Hoffman, Lecturer on Gynecology; John W. Robertson, A.B., M.D., Lecturer on Nervous and Mental Diseases; Felix Lengfeld, Ph. G., Ph. D., Lecturer on Chemistry; George F. Shiels, M.D., F.R.C.S. E., Lecturer on Hygiene and Medical Jurisprudence; John H. Barbat, Ph.G., M.D., Demonstrator of Anatomy; H. N. Winton, M.D., Assistant to the Chair of Materia Medica and Medical Chemistry; W. E. Hopkins, M.D., assistant to the Chair of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology; Campbell Ford, M.D., assistant to the Chair of Physiology; John C. Spencer, M.D., assistant to the Chair of Pathology and Histology; Sam. P. Tuggle, M.D., and John M. Sims, M.D., Assistant Demonstrators of Anatomy; Washington

J. Gundlach & Co's. Table Wines.