In addition to the Professors, there are five demonstrators and eleven members on the Clinical Board for clinical instruction. The clinics are held in the Donohoe Building, top floor; entrance elevator 18 Taylor street. The term begins September 1st and continues until May 31st annually. L. L. Dunbar, Dean of the Faculty. Office 500 Sutter street.

BUSINESS COLLEGES.—Of these there are four, located as follows: Pacific, 320 Post street; Heald's, 24 Post street; Burgess', 51 Montgomery Block; San Francisco, 1236 Market. These institutions enjoy a high reputation, as is attested by the large number of students in attendance, both from the city and interior. The course of studies embraces bookkeeping, penmanship, mathematics, telegraphy, and others calculated to prepare the student for commercial pursuits.

THE HAHNEMANN HOSPITAL COLLEGE OF SAN FRANCISCO.—Was incorporated January 20, 1881, and was among the first to adopt a full three years graded course of study, making a fourth year optional. The college is of high order, its Faculty being composed of some of the most prominent members of the honorable medical profession on the Coast. The qualifications for admission and graduation, and the curriculum are the same as in the oldest and best colleges of the East. The regular session begins on May 1st and continues seven months. Ample clinical advantages are afforded in a large and well patronized Dispensary attached to the College. Dispensary, Dissecting Room and Free Library open to students all through the year. Columbus Waterhouse, President; W. Boericke, M.D., Registrar, 330 Sutter street; C. B. Currier, M.D., Dean, 921 Geary street.

PROF. DE FILIPPE'S ACADEMY OF LANGUAGES.—This well-known institution, which was established in 1871, is now pleasantly located at 320 Post street, opposite Union Square, and is patronized by the elite of our city. Professor T. B. de Filippie is a graduate of the academies of Paris and Madrid. He is one of the foremost imparters of instructions in Spanish and French on the Pacific Coast. He, personally, superintends the Spanish and French classes, and he has a corps of first-class assistants to teach any of the other languages that pupils may desire to learn.

In addition to the institutions enumerated above, are many private schools of excellent reputation; the most prominent of these are Urban Academy, Miss Lake's School, Tarrant's Academy, Van Ness Seminary, Miss West's School, Mefret's French and English Institute, College of Notre Dame, Sacred Heart Academy, St. Rose's Academy, Our Lady of Mercy's School and St. Vincent School. Reference may also be made to the number of Kindergartens, largely increased within the last two years. There are now over forty, most of which are free.

Hospitals.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN'S HOSPITAL.—Location Sacramento street, between Baker and Lyon. Inaugurated May, 1867. Organized May, 1868. Incorporated January, 1873.

This hospital is specially devoted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to women, and only such cases are admitted. It is open to all irrespective of creed or nationality, and offers the comforts of a home in addition to surgical and medical treatment. The Women's Hospital exists as a purely medical charity, and gives relief to two classes of patients: 1st. To those who are destitute and unable to pay anything. 2d. Those whose means are too limited to enable them to pay for private medical attendance, by payment of a moderate sum for board, receive medical attendance and nursing without charge. Application for admission must be made to the Surgeons, Lady Managers or the Matron at the Hospital—Mrs. J. N. Logan.

Officers.—A. J. Ralston, President; A. Halsey, Secretary and Treasurer; Ferdinand D. Vonwinckel, M.D., Surgeon; Samuel G. Boyd, M.D., Resident Surgeon; Mrs. A. N. Towne, President; Mrs. A. Halsey, Secretary Board of Lady Managers.

CITY AND COUNTY HOSPITAL.—Location east side of Potrero avenue, between Sierra and Nevada, F. H. Titus, M. D., superintendent.

FRENCH HOSPITAL.—Bryant street, between Fifth and Sixth. See French Mutual Benevolent Society for further information.

GERMAN HOSPITAL.—Noe street, between Fourteenth and Ridley. For further particulars see German General Benevolent Society of San Francisco.

QUARANTINE HOSPITAL.—Dr. Carmichael, physician-in-charge, Angel Island.

HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN AND TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.—Located on California street, corner Maple street. Dispensary 1016 Mission street. Reincorporated November 25th, 1885. First organized as the Pacific Dispensary for Women and Children, March 23d, 1875. The objects of this institution are:

- 1st. To provide medical and surgical care for sick children, this being the main charity of the institution. No deserving case is ever refused.
 - 2d. To provide medical and surgical aid for women at $10 per week and upwards. This is one source of their revenue.
 - 3d. To educate nurses, the design being to fit healthy young women to engage intelligently in this work by a two years' course of reading, lectures and practical nursing.
- Daily clinics are held at the Dispensary, 1016 Mission street, from 9 to 11 A. M. and from 3 to 4 P. M. for the sick poor.
