RECEIVING HOSPITAL.—New City Hall. George B. Somers, Surgeon; William P. Simpson, First Assistant Surgeon; Tennison Deane Jr., Second Assistant Surgeon.

SAN FRANCISCO LYING-IN HOSPITAL AND FOUNDLING ASYLUM.—Incorporated April, 1868, for the care, protection, and proper treatment of unprotected single women, as well as their offspring, together with all other children that may be abandoned in infancy by outside parties, said children being considered foundlings.

The Foundling Asylum, 913 Golden Gate avenue, receives only abandoned infants prior to two years of age. The Trustees aim at procuring the adoption of as many of these children by thrifty, industrious, moral and temperate people (and no others need apply) as they can.

Charles Burrell, M. D., Attending Physician and Superintendent; Mrs. Mary C. Taylor, Matron.

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL.—Location, east side of Valencia, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets. This is essentially a church hospital, being maintained under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, but persons from all denominations are received. It was organized in 1871, and maintained constantly up to 1882, from which time up to April 8, 1885, it remained closed as a church hospital. Now, however, determined and vigorous efforts have been successfully made to place it on a solid footing. Present capacity, one hundred. Secretary's address, 2902 Clay street.

Officers.—Mrs. J. G. Clark, President; Mrs. B. E. Babcock, Vice-President; Mrs. James Newlands, Secretary; Mrs. George J. Bucknall, Treasurer; A. W. Dunbar, resident Physician; Miss M. E. Gibson, Matron; Miss Hannah J. Brierley, principal nurses' training class.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL.—Conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. Located originally on Stockton street. Removed in 1860 to its present location, corner of First and Bryant streets. The institution is not confined exclusively to Roman Catholics, patients being admitted irrespective of religious sentiments. A large wing with many improvements, including an antiseptic operating room has lately been erected. Charles F. Mohun, M. D., Resident Physician; the visiting staff consists of Dr. Luke Robinson, Dr. A. Leonard, Dr. W. S. Thorn, Dr. M. J. Fottrell and Dr. G. H. Powers.
