SACRED HEART COLLEGE.—The Sacred Heart College, located on the corner of Eddy and Larkin streets, is a wooden structure of three stories high and basement, and covering a large portion of the block. This is conducted by the "Christian Brothers," under the direction of Rev. Brother Alexander. The object of this institution is to give a thoroughly Christian and secular education, embracing the classical, scientific and commercial courses.

SACRED HEART PRESENTATION CONVENT.—The Sacred Heart Presentation Convent is a fine brick building of ample proportions, located at the corner of Taylor and Ellis streets. This is a chartered college by act of the Legislature and empowered to confer graduating certificates. The school is free of charge to all denominations. It was opened on the 24th of May, 1869, and the number of pupils increasing, made it necessary to enlarge the building, and in 1870 the portion fronting on Ellis street was added. Later on a wing within the enclosure was built, to afford more ample facilities for the improvement of pupils in music, needlework, painting, drawing, etc. The institution contains about five hundred pupils and a teaching staff of nineteen Sisters, and is under the charge of the Mother Superior of the Presentation Order in this City.

SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY THE.—The San Francisco Theological Seminary is located at San Anselmo, near San Rafael. This institution was organized by the Synod of the Pacific of the Presbyterian Church, in October, 1871, but is open for students of all denominations. The qualifications for admission and the course of studies are the same as in the oldest and best theological schools in the East. It has a library of over fifteen thousand volumes. The Faculty are: Rev. Drs. Alexander, Minton, Mackenzie, Landon, Day, and Chas. G. Buck, professor of elocution and music. R. J. Trumbull, secretary, 10 California street, S. F. The new buildings—Montgomery Hall, Scott Library Hall and professors' houses—are now occupied. Term opens on third Wednesday of September, and closes on last Thursday of April in each year.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOLS.—Boys' School, in charge of the Brothers of Mary. Girls' School, in charge of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, corner of Tenth and Howard.

In addition to the institutions enumerated above, are many private schools of excellent reputation; the most prominent of these are Urban Academy, Miss Lake's School, Tarrant's Academy, Van Ness Seminary, Miss West's School, Meuret's French and English Institute, College of Notre Dame, Sacred Heart Academy, St. Rose's Academy, Our Lady of Mercy's School and St. Vincent School. Reference may also be made to the number of kindergartens, largely increased within the last two years. There are now over forty, most of which are free.

Hospitals.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN'S HOSPITAL.—Location Sacramento street, between Baker and Lyon. Inaugurated May, 1867. Organized May, 1868. Incorporated January, 1873.

This hospital is specially devoted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to women, and only such cases are admitted. It is open to all irrespective of creed or nationality, and offers the comforts of a home in addition to surgical and medical treatment. The Women's Hospital exists as a purely medical charity, and gives relief to two classes of patients: 1st. To those who are destitute and unable to pay anything. 2d. Those whose means are too limited to enable them to pay for private medical attendance, by payment of a moderate sum for board, receive medical attendance and nursing without charge. Application for admission must be made to the Surgeons, Lady Managers or the Matron at the Hospital—Miss Alice A. Hall.
