TEMPERANCE SOCIETIES.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

Instituted in California February 22, 1855, by the organization of Pacific Lodge No. 1. Organized in New York, 1851. The order takes an advanced position on all questions allied to temperance reform. Its fundamental principles are truth, rectitude, virtue and sobriety; total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage; no license in any form or under any circumstances for the sale of such liquors to be used as a beverage; the prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors, expressed by the will of the people, and embodied in just laws; the creation of a healthy public opinion upon the subject; persistence in all well-directed and humane efforts to reclaim the fallen, and save others from falling victims. There are in this city four Bands of Hope, and the following-named lodges:

FATHER MATTHEW TOTAL ABSTINENCE AND BENEVOLENT SOCIETY No. 1. Organized May, 1869. Number of members, 300. Meets second and fourth Friday evenings of each month at 121 Eddy street.

MANNHEIM LODGE No. 363 (Swedish). Organized September 26, 1891. Meets in Pythian Castle, 909 1/2 Market street near Fifth, every Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock.

SPRING VALLEY LODGE No. 314. Organized April 14, 1890. Meets in Steink's Hall, Octavia street, near Union, every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

VALLEY LODGE No. 293. Organized May 13, 1879. Meets at 927 Mission street every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN FRANCISCO. Headquarters, 1673 Market street. Established in all the parishes of the Archdiocese by Right Rev. George Montgomery (then Chancellor of the Archdiocese) in 1890 and 1891. Incorporated under the laws of the State of California in 1898. Comprises senior, cadet and junior branches, having in all a membership of 8,000. Its objects are to encourage temperance and total abstinence among Catholic men and boys. The members of the junior branches are pledged to total abstinence until reaching the age of twenty-one. The members of the senior branches are of two classes: First, those who are pledged to total abstinence, and second, those who while not pledged to total abstinence promise "not to drink in a saloon or place where liquors are sold, never to send a child to such a place, not to treat or be treated there, and to discourage the custom of drinking in saloons." To hold the larger boys in the League, a new and interesting feature was added in 1893. The First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, was organized by Col. W. P. Sullivan, Jr., in conjunction with Right Rev. Bishop Montgomery. The government is vested in the Board of Directors, consisting of Most Rev. P. W. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Rev. Philip O'Ryan, 1109 Franklin street, Spiritual Director; Walter E. Dorn, Col. W. P. Sullivan, Jr., Thomas H. Fallon, representatives of each parish. The officers are: Rev. Philip O'Ryan, 1109 Franklin street, Spiritual Director; Walter E. Dorn, President; E. W. Gillingley, Vice-President; Frank P. Scully, Recording Secretary; E. J. Coffey, Corresponding Secretary; Dr. S. J. Cunningham, Treasurer.
