

The Palace Hotel

with its unequalled attractions and advantages has for a quarter of a century been the headquarters for tourists and travelers who have journeyed from every part of the world to San Francisco.

It combines every desirable feature, comfort and convenience to be obtained in the best hotels in the world, with the further advantage of being accessible to the wholesale and shopping districts, amusement centers and depots and with street cars to every part of the city passing the entrance.

