

THE GRILL

HOTEL ST. FRANCIS

FACING UNION SQUARE

Elaborated with the seven famous mural paintings by Albert Herter, depicting in colorful pageant the Gifts of the Old World to the New. The massive columns are of Tennessee carved marble, the ceiling of the Italian school.

Club breakfasts, a la carte luncheons and table d'hote and a la carte dinners are features of the Grill. There is no music.

The proximity of the ST. FRANCIS to the busy part of town makes it one of the most convenient places to dine in San Francisco.
