W. M. BAGG'S WAREHOUSE, Capacity, 12,000 Tons.

MONTGOMERY BAGGS.

Stockton is the best Market in the State for Storing and Selling Grain.

Some of the Reasons for Claiming her Superior Facilities:

FIRST—Stockton has larger storage accommodations than any other point on the Pacific.

SECOND—It has the State and whole world for a market.

THIRD—Shippers and mill men look to Stockton for their large supply of wheat.

FOURTH—Wheat can be placed on shipboard in San Francisco bay without paying toll and wharfage to San Francisco.

FIFTH—The large shipping firms of San Francisco as well as the Vallejo mills have their agents constantly in this market, making with the local dealers a competition so great, that gives the farmer the last cent for his grain.

SIXTH—Stockton has ample money accommodations to meet an unlimited amount of storage, and grain stored in W. M. Baggs warehouse commands the lowest rates of interest and insurance.

SEVENTH—Wheat can be shipped by the Stockton steam lines of transportation from W. M. Baggs' warehouse, and delivered at ship's side in twelve hours at a saving to the holder of 50 cts. to $1 per ton over San Francisco warehouses.

EIGHTH—Grain stored in W. M. Baggs' warehouse will be sold by the proprietors without any commission or extra charges over storage.

NINTH—Each storer's grain will be put in an individual pile, and access is to be had to it at any time during business hours.
