

FARMINGTON

Is situated on the Stockton and Visalia railroad, 16 miles from Stockton, and is a prosperous village of some 100 inhabitants.

Beckett Miss Laura E., teacher Fairview district school.

Burt A. L., teacher Shadow Grove district school

Campbell W. P. H., proprietor Lone Tree House

Collins John, carriage maker.

Dunham S., farmer.

Dyke O. D., dealer in general merchandise.

Frost H. C., agent C. P. railroad, Wells, Fargo & Co. and W. U. Telegraph.

Higgins Michael, sheep raiser.

Hillman Mrs. M. S., teacher Union district school.

Hood Alfred carpenter

McClory J. P., saloon keeper.

Russell C. C., proprietor Farmington Hotel.

Spencer A. B., shoe maker

Smith A R., saloon keeper.

Van Vlear R. F., Justice of the Peace.

Witham O., blacksmith and wagon maker.

THE BEST ASSORTED CROCKERY HOUSE ON THE PACIFIC COAST
Outside of San Francisco.

——
C. BEHRNS,

—Wholesale and Retail Dealer in—

China, Crockery & Glass Ware.

SILVER PLATED GOODS,

Cutlery, Tinware, Wooden Ware, Feather Dusters, Baskets,

—BIRD CAGES.—

Lamps, Chandeliers, Coal Oil, Etc.,

177 EL DORADO ST, STOCKTON.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO HOTEL AND SALOON OUTFITS, AT STRICTLY LOWEST SAN FRANCISCO PRICES.

Goods Carefully Packed. Agent for Patent Paper Ware

Teeth Extracted and Anaesthetics given. Also Electricity used for Painless Extractions. by BURTON & MESEROLL.