

CITY PROPERTY IN CHARGE OF THE COMPANY.—1 set of double harness, in good order, 1 set of old harness, 12 acid lamps, 3 kegs of soda, 1 case sulphuric acid, tools, etc.

OFFICERS.—President, J. L. Mowbray ; Foreman, B. F. Kohlberg ; 1st Assistant, A. Ester ; 2nd Assistant, J. W. Brady ; Secretary, S. W. Ralph ; Treasurer, Fred Yost ; Driver, M. McCann.

PROTECTION HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY, No. 1.—Organized November 15th, 1851. Location on the east side of Hunter street between Main and Market.

COMPANY PROPERTY.—1 Hook and Ladder Truck, Pine & Hartshorne manufacture ; 1 horse, 5 ladders, 6 hooks, 2 tormentors, 2 picks, lanterns, trumpets, torches, etc. The property of the city of which the company has charge, consists of 1 set of single harness, and the tools necessary for use about the house and truck.

OFFICERS.—President, E. I. Griswold ; Foreman, M. Brisco ; 1st Assistant, John Collins ; 2nd Assistant, F. S. Parsons ; Secretary, R. C. Myrick ; Treasurer, Fred Arnold ; Driver, R. C. Myrick.

CISTERNS.

According to the report of Chief Engineer Mountjoy, submitted to the City Council on the first of January, 1878, there were twenty-seven cisterns in the city, located as follows, and at the intersections of the following named streets : Commerce and Main ; Main and Centre ; Main and Hunter ; Main and Sutter ; Main and Stanislaus ; Main and Ophir ; Market and American ; Washington and El Dorado ; Washington and Beaver ; Washington and Aurora ; Lafayette and Centre ; Lafayette and Pilgrim ; Sonora and Sutter ; Weber Avenue and San Joaquin ; Weber Avenue and California ; Weber Avenue and Grant ; Channel and Hunter ; Channel and Union ; Lindsay and California ; Lindsay and San Joaquin ; Oak and Stanislaus ; Flora and Sutter ; Flora and Commerce ; California and Jefferson ; Hunter and Church ; Market and California ; and one on San Joaquin street, between Mormon and Scott's Avenue known as the St. Agnes cistern. These cisterns are all in good condition.

COUNTY HOSPITAL.

The County Hospital of San Joaquin county is situated in the southeastern part of the city, between Sierra Nevada and East streets, Scott's avenue and Taylor street. It is under the control of the Board of Supervisors. Dr. A. T. Hudson, County Physician, and Charles Garrow,