Solving an Ancient Merchandising Problem

Manufacturers are aware that one of the most intricate problems has been to direct the prospective buyer, interested in a particular product, to the dealer who sells that product locally. This problem has at last been solved by the new "Buyer's Guide" service.

With your name and merchandise listed in this directory, the prospective purchaser will learn in an instant that you sell the articles he wants. If you are a manufacturer, you'll be interested!
