The only time most service men are free to call home is between 7 and 10 o'clock at night. They can get their calls through easier if the wires aren't crowded during those hours.

When you take millions of men and put them in camps around the country, you're bound to have a lot of Long Distance telephoning. The rush is particularly heavy at night between 7 and 10—about the only time the boys have to telephone. So if you can make your Long Distance calls at other times, we'll appreciate it.
