

Take life EASY

with a color telephone
in every room you use a lot

You can build yourself an easy-going, relaxed way of life if you put color telephones in every room where you spend a lot of time. Extension phones take most of the run out of running a home—let you make and take calls right where you sleep, or work, or enjoy your leisure. And in color, an extension telephone is as beautiful as it's practical. Just call your Business Office Service Representative or ask any telephone service man—they'll be glad to tell you how little it costs to put color phones where you need them.
